"CROSSING THE BAR"

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea.

But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark;

For though from out our bourne of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.

—Alfred, Lord Tennyson

Alma Mater

Oh Perrysburg High, our dear old school,
For thee we'll ever stand.
Your royal fame, your spirit game
Has won our heart and hand.
Perrysburg High, again we sing
Cheers for the Black and Gold.
Hip hurrah, win the fray!
Our banners high we'll hold.
Help along, sing a song.
Laud your school where 'er you go!
Shout her name, win her fame,
Vanquish every fighting foe!
Team of might, our delight, ever fight,
Fight, fight, fight, fight, fight, fight!

On with the battle for the Black and Gold.
Fight with a spirit that is brave and bold.
For her we are cheering;
Of her fame we're hearing;
We will prove our loyalty to you, P. H. S.
We know those colors stand for all that's true,
Bravery, fidelity, and courage too.
Hail, then, dear old Perrysburg High,
We pledge our hearts to you!

Foreword

Dear native regions, I foretell,
From what I feel at this farewell,
That, wheresoe'er my steps may tend,
And whensoe'er my course shall end,
If in that hour a single tie
Survive of local sympathy,
My soul will cast the backward view,
The longing look alone on you.

Thus, while the Sun sinks down to rest
Far in the regions of the west,
Though to the vale no parting beam
Be given, not one memorial gleam,
A lingering light he fondly throws
On the dear hills where first he rose.

—William Wordsworth

CHAPTER ONE

It was a bright September morning. The old school bell peeled out the familiar tone on the fresh autumn breeze. To a certain group of ninety pairs of ears, the bell heralded a new message. Freshmen ! ! It seemed that for years the foremost ambition of those ninety boys and girls, who appeared to begin their high school career, had been this longed-for moment.

With the jeers of the upper-classmen and getting accustomed to class schedules, a kind of awkwardness prevailed over that group of happy youngsters for the first few weeks. However, with the aid of Mr. Canfield, the class organized and elected the following officers:

|---|---|
| President | Wilda Walker |
| Vice-President | Harold Goeke |
| Secretary-Treasurer | Carl Eckel |
| Reporter | Jay Twining |

Although we were quite insignificant socially, we gained scholastic recognition through the names of various students on the Honor Roll and in the State Scholarship Tests.

Thus it was that the Class of 1933 sent out its little ship on her maiden voyage of the great voyage—High School.

CHAPTER TWO

As the little ship sets sail the second time, we find that the number of our shipmates has dwindled to eighty. With our faithful pilot, Mr. Canfield, we chose these officers to steer us on our course.

|---|---|
| President | Jay Twining |
| Vice-President | Willard Robison |
| Secretary | James Cranker |
| Treasurer | Virginia Hayes |
| Reporter | Lily Williams |

During the ensuing year, the same standards of scholarship, which had been set up the previous year, were maintained, and a larger social program was enjoyed.

CHAPTER THREE

In the fall of 1931 seventy-five students returned to a new, magnificent P. H. S., wide-eyed, wondering, and hilarious over such a marvelously equipped school.

Class History

Our little ship glides out from its new port. All's well under the capable guidance of Mr. Huffman, and the group elected as our officers:

|---|---|
| President | Willard Robison |
| Vice-President | Harold Goeke |
| Secretary | James Cranker |
| Treasurer | Virginia Hayes |
| Reporter | Horace Stephens |
| Student Council Representative | Viola Bostdorf |

Too quickly did the year pass. New social responsibilities were given us besides that of maintaining our high scholastic standards. We felt more seriously the fact that we stood on the threshold of our senior year.

CHAPTER FOUR

A September morning; the school bell rings out on the clear, sunlit air. A thrill is felt by the seventy-three seniors who set out in a more serious mood to resume their work at P. H. S.

With banners flying high, the faithful ship launches forth on her last voyage, carrying us to our dreamed-of-destination—Graduation. With Miss Forsyth and Mr. Barber as our new guides, we entrust our last voyage to these officers, confident that they will steer us safely home:

|---|---|
| President | Willard Robison |
| Vice-President | Marian Kureth |
| Secretary | Virginia Hayes |
| Treasurer | James Cranker |
| Reporter | Margaret Thornton |
| Social Chairmen | Wilda Walker, Henry Kutschke |
| Student Council Representative | Viola Bostdorf |

The year has passed. How—we cannot divine. It has been with an incredible celerity that nine months of school have flitted by. Truly, this year has been the most enjoyable of all our experiences in school.

We stand in caps and gowns at the height of our ambition. Our dream is ended. Graduation is a reality. Our voyage is done. The little ship docks at the harbor of its final destination. Our day is drawing to a close; night is drawing nigh; the sun hangs low in the West. The shadows are the fond and happy memories which will live forever on the sky of our souls.

Class Prophecy

Class prophecies have ofttimes been told
In many a form and fancy, in ways both new and old.
Gazing into the crystal ball, I see
The future of each senior of the class of '33.
First comes forth young Chuck Schneider.
He has won fame as a motorcycle-rider.
Again I search and lo! I see
At his desk at Harvard, Professor Henry Kutschke.
Scotty McCoy, tall, blond, and fair,
Is presiding at court in the judge's chair.
Bud Robison, with his good left arm so stout,
Is pitching for the Yankees and striking them out.
Don Acklin, at Rollins, appears to me.
He's teaching the science of Technocracy.
Lloyd Neiderhouse is getting all set:
The crystal says he'll be President yet.
Purdue's noble team, the champions to be,
Has for its coach, Leonard Carl Debbe.
Little Jimmy Cranker, quite somebody is he.
He's now the manager of sports at Ypsilanti.
Maxine Murray is the girl whom I spy,
Displaying her art at dear old Chi.
Who is this? Tiny Kazmaier, all dressed in lace!
She's smiling and dancing with the footlights in her face.
There sits Bob Sarver just two seats back.
He wanted to be a coach but work's still slack.
Here's Katherine Kaltenmark to be sure!
She's answered the call of the librarian's lure.
I'm now in New York at the close of day;
A little shop appears on the great white way;
It's a Variety Store with its lights all ablaze,
And on the window is written "Anning and Hayes".
Horace Stephens, in his office overlooking a park,
Is giving orders to his "Stenog," Miss Eunice Clark.
From the orchestra pit at Cleveland's Blackstone,
Carlton Caldwell sends forth tones from his slide-trombone.
Carey Lindsay, a happy go lucky boy,
Is driving a speed boat. Ship a-hoy!
Melba Starr, so dainty and fair,
Lays pretty waves in MiLady's hair.
Showing forth from the crystal ball

Is great Detroit's Y. W. C. A. Hall.
Wilda Walker is its president, kind and true.
Margaret Thornton has the money when the bills come due.
As a journalist, Fran Leatherman, wished to win fame,
So with her brief case she boarded a train.
She was off to New York with a swish and a swirl,
And now's with the "Times". Whew! What a girl!
Down old Broadway with its lights all aflame,
There burns before my eyes Dale Bernard's name.
Can it be? Yes, I believe I'm right.
In Grand Opera, he's making his bow tonight.
It certainly causes me no great alarm
To see Carl Eckel prospering on a farm.
Sailing to China and far distant lands,
Ruth and Jane Hufford have formed Missionary bands.
Howard Rectenwald, as a priest calm and kind,
Touches people's hearts and quiets their minds.
Adella Weeber, in uniform starched and white,
Is walking hospital corridors all through the night.
Joe Farley, another fine old classmate,
At Washington, is directing affairs of state.
As a major, at West Point's famous post,
Fred Schwind gained the position he coveted most.
Strains of music, soft and rare,
Come floating out on the evening air.
Down at Oberlin, a nice little town,
As organist, Vivian Williams has gained renown.
Jay Twining has chosen an aviator's life.
He goes into tailspins thinking of his wife.
Charles McCarty, a policeman on Toledo's busy streets,
Twirls his moustache and smiles at every lady he meets.
As an electrical engineer, fame he has won,
It is none other than our own William Compton.
Clarence Stanford, who did the delivery chore,
Is still delivering, but he has his own store.
In his jewelry store, with its diamonds all a-glitter,
Stands Harold Goeke with heart all a-twitter.
Gazing at him, with her eyes so blue,
Is a sweet young lady saying, "How do you do".
Hazel Conner, a person for knowledge and lore,

Has attended many colleges and been graduated from four.
Eddie went to college. (He had a few dates.)
Now, back home, Father Lippert's dairy he operates.
Come, mystic crystal, serve me well;
Where my classmates are, I must foretell.
Ah, who is this I see? It is Robert Jeffrey,
Standing behind the counter in his spotless bakery.
Who's that man standing in the next door?
It's Leslie Burkhart, who runs a hardware store.
Down at W. S. P. D., Erwin Schober's going on the air.
As his announcer, Paul Duquette, proves himself quite a lear.
Mary Jane Seminew has made herself a name!
Cast your eyes skyward and see her aeroplane.
Howard Williams, who craved education,
Is dean of a school of his own creation.
A number of faces appear in a haze,
As into the crystal ball I gaze.
I look still closer, (as I thought I should),
And see some of the class out in Hollywood.
Ruth Thompson, Zelda Ellerman, and Laverne Schramm
Are hoping to be stars in the years to come.
Mable Marshall, Ruth Kepler and Berneta Reed
Are actresses. Ah, yes indeed.
In these days of health, people still complain of ills,
So they call Dr. Walp, who gives them some pills.
Here's a nice little factory where they make ginger ale.
Lester Holcomb owns it but he has it up for sale.
To be a teacher, Garnett Corbin had a yearning.
Now she teaches in Perrysburg's Hall of Learning.
Standing before her at Georgia Tech,
Is Wilma Miller's gym class, tall and erect.
While in the same school, the boys his glances fearing,
Clark Ryder is teaching Civil Engineering.
Edward Lahey didn't think it so funny
To find a good way to make some money.
So he thought and thought but was still in a quandary,
And to settle it all, he started a laundry.
Mike Kushner operates a chain of garages;
He repairs all makes from Fords to Dodges.
As a landscape gardener with experienced hand,

Herbert Stemen raises flowers to beautify our land.
Doris Sherman, still so kind and sweet,
Lives in a cottage just down our street.
She and her husband have the kindest fate,
For they go driving in their own straight eight.
Standing with his baton high in the air,
Clifford Cunning is leading an orchestra which is quite fair.
There's Helen Brocka. What's she done with life?
Why, she's making some man a good true wife.
Mary Brossia, I'd say she's no spinster.
She has fallen in love and married a minister.
Running the electric plant that gives us our power,
Is another old classmate, Jonathan Dauer.
In one of Philadelphia's very finest stores,
Gervaise Thornton models gowns every lady adores.
John Lindsay's hair is growing much greyer.
He's burdened with the problems of being Toledo's mayor.
Playing the role of mother, in "Hearts All Afire",
Viola Bostdorf is realizing her deepest desire.
In a large hotel overlooking a bay,
Jack Goeckerman, a yachtman, is making a stay.
Paul Kolvey, a deck hand keeps the yacht clean and bright.
He works through the day and goes roaming by night.
Living on a ranch in the great golden West,
Marie Ketzer enjoys the life she always loved best.
A hotel hostess is a position not to be spurned,
So Ila Carpenter went to school and this she has learned.
Down at St. Vincent's, its interior white and clean,
As a nurse, Stella Minarik, another classmate, can be seen.
Eleanor Storts, in an Orphans' Home,
Sings to the children in her sweet soprano tone.
Gerald Hirsch, swinging a suitcase in his hand,
Walks down the street, as a Fuller brush man.
Dick Liebherr, in his spick and span togs,
At Coney Island, in his stand, is selling hot dogs.
Thanks, kind crystal, this reminiscing has been a pleasure.
These memories of my classmates, I shall forever treasure.
Then tonight as I pause from the concert of mine,
I'll give to their memory, and sing "Auld Lang Syne".

Junior Class History

In September of 1930, about ninety-six young people organized as a Freshman Class. Soon after we had become acquainted, we elected, under the guidance of Mr. Huffman and Mr. Scheld, the following officers:

|---|---|
| President | Robert Sprengel |
| Vice-President | Glenn Simmons |
| Secretary | Evelyn Hutchison |
| Treasurer | Ruth Williams |
| Reporter | Ruth Caldwell |
| Cheer Leader | Loretta Howe |

Our first eventful year was full of memories and we were ready to start our coming year.

We were seventy-six in number as a Sophomore Class. Our officers were:

|---|---|
| President | Robert Sprengel |
| Vice-President | Jack Heckler |
| Secretary | Evelyn Hutchison |
| Treasurer | Caroline Wenz |
| Reporter | Wendell Riggle |
| Student Council Representative | Ruth Williams |
| Cheer Leaders | Glenn Simmons, Irene Inman |

In this, our Junior Year, we have only 59 members in our Class. However, this has been the most successful of our three years in P. H. S. Our Class officers were:

|---|---|
| President | Floris Sweet |
| Vice-President | John Hayes |
| Secretary | Paul Munger |
| Treasurer | William Sass |
| Reporter | Althea Kruse |
| Student Council Representative | Ruth Williams |
| Cheer Leader | Glenn Simmons |

JUNIORS

Sophomore Class History

When school opened last year, about one hundred twenty-five Freshmen reported. Under the sponsorship of Miss Wahl, Mr. Bachman and Mr. Gerber the following officers were elected:

|---|---|
| President | Richard Wellstead |
| Vice-President | Virginia Zachman |
| Secretary | Donald Halbert |
| Treasurer | Robert Anderson |
| Reporter | Francis Cornelius |

This year ninety-six students registered as Sophomores. We feel that the second year of our high-school career has been very successful. Mr. Canfield has acted as the class advisor. The students holding offices were:

|---|---|
| President | Hazel Holcomb |
| Vice-President | Glenn Burdo |
| Secretary | Mary Cranker |
| Treasurer | Rosalyn Haight |
| Reporter | D. Ruth Sage |
| Student Council Representative | Kathryn Lindsay |
| Cheer Leader | Eugene Griss |

Bruce Bodart was our chosen president for the year, a classmate of whom we were justly proud of holding this honor. We were all greatly saddened by his untimely death, for he was loved by all his fellow companions. For the remainder of the year the Vice-President, Hazel Holcomb acted in his place.

First Row—Harry Albright, Vernon Albright, Robert Anderson, Mary Bays, Mary Jane Bazavik, Robert Bench, Helen Black, Luella Bostdorf, Helen Marie Bowers.

Second Row—Arthella Britton, Robert Brown, Gordon Burkhart, Glenn Burdo, Shirley Byington, Arnold Christen, Mary Ellen Coil, Aileen Cookson, Bernadine Cookson.

To those energetic individuals who so eagerly add the song, the drama,
and the color to our High School life,
We impartially dedicate this section

—Organization

Student Council

The Student Council has completed its second year with the objectives set forth in its constitution continually in mind. We hope that its second year has been satisfactory to the school community.

The council has taken over certain routine duties which would otherwise have taken up the time of the principal and teachers. In addition, the council has seemed as a clearing house to the faculty, classes, activities and organizations.

In the few instances where the council has voted rules affecting the school parties, its members have put the welfare of the school and the wishes of the majority of the student body before all other considerations.

The platform has been "The Students of this school and their education first". On this platform it has had the support of the students, faculty, parents, and the school's alumni.

The individual members of the council have learned many valuable lessons from the year's experience, such as having the opportunity of sensing, in a very realistic way, the attitude of the school toward its chosen representatives.

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society is really the Junior Chapter of the Phi Beta Kappa, the national honorary organization of colleges and universities.

Only high schools of Class "A" ranking in scholarship are granted the privilege of membership. We are very proud that our school has been a part of this society since 1925.

Fifteen per cent of each class is eligible for membership in the National Honor Society. On the basis of scholarship, leadership, character and service, five per cent of the members are chosen in the Junior year, and the remaining ten per cent during the Senior year.

We feel that the National Honor Society is one of the most beneficial organizations of our high school. It is an inspiration and an ambition which prompts students to strive to create in themselves those four qualities which are qualifications for membership.

The class of 1933 is represented by Wilda Walker, Lloyd Neiderhouse, Katherine Kaltenmark, Margaret Thornton, Maxine Murray, Adella Weeber, Howard Williams, Frances Leatherman and Henry Kutschke.

Girl Reserves

The Girl Reserve organization, under the sponsorship of Miss Forsyth, has had a very successful year, socially and in the field of service.

Junior and Senior girls, who possess very high standards in both character and scholarship, are eligible to membership.

The aim of the Girl Reserves is to aid in the advancement of all the vital interests of girls, in terms of social, economic, intellectual, moral and spiritual welfare, through a development of companionship, leadership and fineness of character.

We sincerely hope to educate our membership in such a way, that in the future the organization may constitute an effective agency for social progress in both our school and community.

The following officers have served us with untiring efforts:

|---|---|
| President | Wilda Walker |
| Vice-President | Margaret Thornton |
| Secretary | Adella Weeber |
| Treasurer | Virginia Hayes |
| Chaplain | Caroline Wenz |

Hi-Y

The Hi-Y Club is a Christian organization composed of the upper-classmen in the high school. Its purpose is to create, maintain and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character.

In the meetings which were held on Wednesday mornings, the problems of life that confront young men were discussed. Those discussions from observation have had a good influence upon the members.

The Club wishes to thank Mr. Treece for his invaluable help and suggestions throughout the year.

Freshmen-Sophomore Dramatic Club

The students responded with a great deal of enthusiasm at the first meeting of the Freshmen-Sophomore Dramatic Club, which was called under the direction of Miss Munger.

The aim of the Club was to develop dramatic ability and to discover new talent among the under-classmen.

The plays which have been presented at the various Club programs were: "The Three Wishes", "The Visitor", "The Trysting Place" and "Assistance, Please".

The officers of the organization were:

|---|---|
| President | Peter Kushner |
| Vice-President | Ruth Hahn |
| Secretary | Glenn Burdo |
| Treasurer | Jack Thornton |
| Reporter | Evelyn Shuster |
| Program Committee | Mary Ellen Coil |
| | Perkins Henry |
| | Adeline Sass |

Junior-Senior Dramatic Club

The first meeting of the Junior-Senior Dramatic Club was held in October. The following officers were elected:

|---|---|
| President | Henry Kutschke |
| Vice-President | Marian Kureth |
| Secretary | Horace Stephens |
| Treasurer | John Hayes |
| Reporter | Margaret Thornton |

Under the capable direction of Mr. Barber, two three-act plays, "A Yankee in London", "Whimsy" and numerous one-act plays were presented. These plays gave active parts to approximately fifty members.

The proceeds from the three-act plays which were presented to the public went to the P. H. S. Picture Fund, the Central Relief Committee and the Farmer's Institute.

We feel that the activities of the Club for the year have been very successful.

Our thanks go to Mr. Barber for his interest in helping us in our accomplishments.

Industrial Arts Club

An Industrial Arts Club was organized for the first time this year. The purpose of it was to give those boys who have had manual training more time to work and study on the subject, and to give new or prospective students some idea of the work.

Since this was a new club it has been rather slow in getting started, but after having watched the activity of the members, it can be assured that everyone was interested in his work.

President ..... Bratche Webster
Reporter ..... Robert Mills
Sponsor ..... Mr. Bachman

Science Club

The members of the Science Club held their first meeting September 20, with Mr. Canfield as sponsor. The following members were elected to offices:

|---|---|
| President | George McCoy |
| Vice-President | Richard Wellstead |
| Secretary | Mary Cranker |
| Treasurer | Howard Williams |
| Reporter | Mary Cranker |

The aim of this Club was to promote an interest in the scientific things by increasing our present knowledge.

The programs have consisted of numerous demonstrations and discussions on such subjects as diamonds, atmospheric pressure, heat, electricity and chemical reactions.

By combining amusement with the more practical measures, this Club has become one of the most popular in school.

Music Club

The Music Club was organized for the second consecutive year by the selection of the following officers:

|---|---|
| President | Dorothy Eckel |
| Vice-President | Glenn Simmons |
| Secretary | Beatrice Scheider |
| Treasurer | D. Ruth Sage |
| Reporter | Althea Kruse |

The monthly meetings of this Club have consisted of various musical selections and discussions. These programs have brought out some real musical talent, through the help of Mr. Gerber.

We feel that this organization has developed a deeper appreciation for music in its members during the past year.

Home-Economics Club

President ..... Stella Minarik
Vice-President ..... Ruth Lindemier
Secretary ..... Wilma Emch
Treasurer ..... Marcella Kellermeier
Reporter ..... Gladys Schramm

At the beginning of the year a group of girls formed the Home Economics Club, which was the first of its kind in the high school. The Club met every month for the programs that were provided by the committees appointed each time.

Some of the aims of this Club were to learn various kinds of handicrafts useful in home life, such as dyeing, embroidery and the making of paper flowers. The discussions were conducted for the purpose of encouraging interest and appreciation in home life.

Having had Miss Wahl as advisor, the Club feels that the organization has been one that was worth while.

Band

The band was organized this year with the largest number of members that it has had in its short history. This organization was started three years ago by Mr. Gerber, and we are proud of the fact that it is such a large organization. It has played for all home games of football, basketball and the pep meetings. We feel that these performances have proved the worth-whileness of the organization. The following held offices during the year:

President ..... Willard Robison
Librarian ..... Frederick Jacobs
Reporter ..... Carlton Caldwell

Orchestra

The High School Orchestra has been very successful this year through the patient efforts of Mr. Gerber. Several new instruments were added to the orchestra which have been badly needed for several years. Among these were the Alto Horn and Viola.

The group has played for the plays and various other entertainments that have taken place during the year. The numbers used included the works of such eminent composers as Shubert, Mozart and Beethoven.

We certainly will feel the loss of the musical talent which graduation will bring, but we feel certain that these members will come back to help us in future alumni programs.

COACH BACHMAN—This was a difficult year for Coach Bachman. With light and inexperienced material, he faced one of the toughest schedules that Perrysburg has ever played. Naturally his teams lost some games, but even in defeat they acquitted themselves like men. Coach Bachman does not believe the "Win at any cost" theory. Always the welfare of the boys is uppermost in his mind. "Win if possible" is his motto, "It is better to lose every game of the season than to injure the health or morals of the boys". As a strict task master, honest and impartial, he has won the love and respect of every boy in high school.

DOC CANFIELD: Assistant Coach and Trainer—Dear old "Doc" was always on the job with the first-aid kit, a wise-crack, and a broad smile. With that combination he made bad cuts and bruises feel like the after-glow of a sweetheart's kiss. His pet phrases, as the line used to form, were "Don't crowd, fellows!" and "One at a time, please."

MR. TREECE: Faculty Manager—The work of Mr. Treece is seldom brought to our attention, so smoothly does he function as Faculty Manager of Athletics. However, his influence is felt down to the last member of the squad. His genial personality and A-No. 1 grade of sportsmanship have endeared him to this, as to every team, since he came to Perrysburg High School.

CAPTAIN DEBBE: Tackle—Debbe surely played great in most of the games this year. He was a little slow at first, but he opened up later. He was a stonewall at tackle and we certainly hate to see him go. We wish you were back next year, Leonard.

BOB SARVER: Fullback—This was Bob's first year with P. H. S. and he surely showed his stuff. He played a fighting game straight through to the finish. When he tackled a man, the man always went down. His best game was the one with Rossford. Too bad we have to lose you, Bob.

DICK WELLSTEAD: End—Dick played a fast and tricky game for our school all year. In th Swanton game he outran their whole team. He was a great fellow to snag passes and get away with them. Dick has two more years and we will expect a lot from him.

JIM CRANKER: Quarterback—Jim was a little new at the beginning but he loosened up as the season progressed. He proved to be very good at defensive and offensive games. He was small but shifty and fast. We regret that this is his last year.

GERALD HIRSCH: Quarterback—Gerry was another small but mighty player. When he received the ball, he just ducked his head and drove straight through the line. He improved with each game and P. H. S. will be the loser from his graduation.

HENRY KUTSCHKE: Center—Henry showed a "Never say die spirit!" throughout the year, rain or shine. He played a strong and good position at center. Although a little weak at first, he tightened up as he received more experience. We are sorry to lose Hank through graduation, for we know his place will be hard to fill.

PAUL DUQUETTE: Halfback—Duke started out fine but slackened a little bit. About the middle of the season he began to play real football and his improvements continued. We hate to see him leave, but we will have to say, "So long, Duke."

HORACE STEPHENS: Center—Horace was short but he could usually stop his man. He played a difficult position and played it well. Sorry you won't be with us next year, Juney.

JAY TWINING: Tackle—Jay had to work most of the season and didn't get very much practice, but he played football when he had the chance. Here was a fighter. When he charged he certainly broke up the line. Jay is another graduate this year. Good luck.

FRED SCHWIND: End—This was Fred's last year and he put up a great fight for his Alma Mater. It will be hard to fill his shoes at end next fall.

WILLIAM SASS: Guard—Bill has one more year and we will expect a lot from him next year. He played a good game, a little slow at the start, but much better at the finish. Keep it up! Bill.

MELVIN BROSSIA: Guard—Red was a fighting man all the way around. When he started to play, he cleaned up the opposition. Red has another year and we expect him to do some excellent playing. Come on, Red.

DICK LIEBHERR: Tackle—Dick's first year on the varsity team was a big success. He graduates this year just as his football career is starting.

JOHN PERRIN: Guard—John played a good game throughout the season. When he went in after his man, he always downed him. Johnny was a fighter and he showed it in all of the games. He has another year and the fans will see a fighting lineman.

STEVE PROTSIK: Halfback—Steve played his position well this year. He is a fighter and fast ball carrier. Steve showed up excellent the Whitmer and Swanton games. Two more years and we will see what a player he has become. Let's go Steve.

CHARLES SCHNEIDER: End—Chuck was green at first, but he listened to everything Bachman said and improved rapidly. By the end of the season he was one of the best pass receivers on the squad. Chuck had plenty of speed which was proved in the Rossford game. He is another senior so we'll say, "Goodbye, Chuck".

MIKE KUSHNER: Quarterback—Mike was small but mighty. He was a good ball carrier, especially on returning punts or on the kick-off. This was his first and last year and we are going to miss him a lot.

BILL COMPTON: Fullback—With a little more experience Bill would have developed into one of the best fullbacks that P. H. S. has ever had. For his first year he played a remarkable game. Coach Bachman will have a tough time finding one to take his place.

FOOTBALL REVIEW

Measured in terms of games won and lost, the football season would not be considered a complete success. But considered in the light of the inexperience of the players, the strength of the opposition, the clean hard playing, and the fine type of sportsmanship shown by the fellows in every game, it was a most successful season. We were proud of the team even in defeat. Come on you Yellow Jackets! Yea team!

DISTRICT TOURNAMENT

Bowling Green 17 Perrysburg 15

BASKETBALL REVIEW

The games won and lost does not indicate the strength of the team, for in almost every game the "Yellow Jackets" outplayed their rivals in every department except shooting. During the greater half of the season, they were in the biggest shooting slump ever known to a Perrysburg Quintet.

Due to the fact that we lose only two letter men, prospects for a winning team next year look bright.

WILLARD ROBISON, "Bud": Center—He was a true sport in every sense of the word. He was a clean hard fighter with those qualities that every coach is looking for. Bud played in tough luck part of the season when his shooting eye failed him, but before the season ended he was going great again, and was an outstanding star in many of the games. His work in the District Tournament was brilliant both on offense and defense, and Oh, how we'll miss him when next basketball season rolls around.

GEORGE McCOY, "Scotty": Guard—Scotty was the spark plug of the team. His fighting spirit added something beyond his contribution as an individual player. He was one of those rare individuals who inspire their team mates to play beyond their ability. Fast and clever, he is one of the most popular players with the students and fans that ever played for P.H.S.

FLORIS SWEET, "Flo": Guard—Flo has a lot of basketball ability. He played in tough luck in several games this year, but played some excellent ones too. He should be one of the best guards in the league, next year. We are expecting a lot from you next year, Flo.

RICHARD WELLSTEAD, "Dick": Forward—He is only a sophomore but a heady player with worlds of fight. If he continues to improve next year as he did this, he will develop into one of the best high school forwards in the state. Come on, Dick, we are pulling for you.

MILTON BENGSTON, "Bing": Forward—Bing was a life-saver, sure enough. With a little experience in Parma High to help him out, he soon developed into a great little player and teamed it in fine style with Wellstead. What a sweet little pair of forwards they will make next year!

WENDELL RIGGLE, "Wendy": Guard—With no experience and green as grass when the season started, he improved so rapidly that before the season was half over he was breaking in as a regular. With the experience of this year, he should develop even more rapidly next year. Step on it, Wendy, old boy.

GORDON BURKHART, "Burky": Guard—Slow and awkward when the season started, he played great in those last few games of the season. Boy, what a change! We can hardly wait to see him next year. Let's go, Burky.

Calendar

SEPTEMBER

6—With the ringing of the school bell, 350 students enrolled in P. H. S. The Hi-Y operated a bookstore and sold books and parts of books.

8—The Senior Girl Reserves had a roast at Ft. Meigs.

14—Big election day for the clubs and classes.

23—The official magazine salesmen attempted to display their musical talent, but upon failing, they decided to show us how to sell magazines.

26—Bruce Bodart died today after having suffered from an infection that developed during football practice.

28—School was dismissed for his funeral, which was held in the high school auditorium at 2:00 in the afternooon.

30—Mr. Burgderfer, famous humorist and impersonator performed in the auditorium. We learned a new laugh from the man with many strange voices.

OCTOBER

7—North Baltimore tied with the Yellow Jackets.

14—Whitmer football game. We tied again.

18—Girl Reserve Induction Ceremony. Thirteen pledges. A very impressive and serious ceremony carried out by a candle-light service.

19—Initiation of Junior G. R. girls. They really could do as they were told. (Juniors! Please learn how to dress yourselves before you become a bad example for the lower-classmen.)

26—First "Somethin' " out. An orchid to the staff.

28—No school today. There was Teachers' Meeting in Toledo. We still wonder if the teachers were as griped as students usually are?

NOVEMBER

4—"Turtle-neck Sweaters" seemed to be the fad for the Girl Reserves.

8—A straw-vote was cast by the students. The ballot returns re-elected President Hoover.

10—The 1898 Football Team told us of the "good-old days".
"Whimsy" was presented by the Junior-Senior Dramatic Club.

15—Hi-Y induction and initiation.

16—The Seniors received their class rings. Why were so many missing the first few days? Even a few of the freshmen expect to graduate this year.

23—The Senior Class gave a dance.

28—After Thanksgiving vacation the grind began.

DECEMBER

2—Mr. Gerber presented the Little Symphony Orchestra in a concert in the evening. It was composed of the Alumni and High School Orchestra members.

Calendar

9—The Senior Class pictures were taken at Livingston's. The Ten-Cent Stores were filled with dashing Seniors.

14—The Girl Reserves and the Hi-Y boys held a party and dance. Later it was reported that Mr. Gerber carried off the apples.

22—The play, "A Yankee in London", was given.

23—The members of the National Honor Society were named and pins were presented to them. (Miracles do happen!) The Junior Class gave a dance in the evening.

JANUARY

9—Back to school after a two-weeks vacation.

20—The Yellow Jackets played basketball at Rossford.

27—Maumee basketball game. Perrysburg played real basketball but luck gave Maumee the extra point.

30—The "Black and Gold" staff was elected. The staff was definitely elected but the publication of the Annual was then a question.

FEBRUARY

3—A return game was played with Rossford.

13—The Farmers' Institute was held today in the auditorium. The Glee Clubs and Orchestra provided the music.

14—"A Yankee in London" was presented again, better than ever.

15—The Girl Reserves entertained their boy friends at a Valentine banquet and dance. (Will you tread a measure with me?)

21—The Sophomores gave a dance for the high school students. Margaret Thornton and Irene Inman are still advertising for balance masters.

23—Where is Miss Forsyth?

24—Oh, she was operated on for appendicitis.

MARCH

2—Perrysburg played in the District Tournament at Bowling Green.

4—Charles Schneider honored Washington D. C. by a visit. (Specially noticed by Roosevelt. Eh? Chuck?)

8—Ibn Lo Bagola entertained in the auditorium—fresh from the jungle.

17—Elimination contest in High School Auditorium. The survival of the fittest.

25—The public speaking class, sponsored by Miss Wellstead, gave a three-act play, entitled "Hot Copy".

30—Miss Forsyth returned to school this afternoon. All students were pleased to see her back.

Calendar

31—The Northwestern Eisteddfod was held at Ada. Perrysburg successfully defeated other contesting schools. The cup is ours—notice the date '33. We wonder if the school bus could ever have any more flat tires.

APRIL

1—Hi-Y Sport Dance. Good orchestra. Old man winter took a vacation. Did you see the white flannels the fellows wore?

5—Group pictures were taken for the annual. Fran Leatherman was shaken up. Naughty girl! She just wouldn't stand still.

7—Viola Bostdorf spoiled two group pictures, so Livingston's returned to take them over. She would have to ruin perfectly good pictures.

12—A Pre-Easter Chapel Program was held. Rev. P. C. Wolf talked on the last week of Christ's life.

13—The Junior Class elected their "Somethin' " staff. Just another popularity contest.

14—Good Friday—no school.

21—The curfew bell failed to toll at eight o'clock so the Freshmen had a party. Because of their bashfulness and shyness, upper-classmen were excluded.

MAY

1—The Junior Girl Reserves gave a "May Day Tea" for the Senior Girl Reserves.

6—The scholarship contestants win honors in the tests given at Bowling Green Normal College.

17—Senior activities began. "Kempy" was presented under the direction of Miss Marie Wellstead.

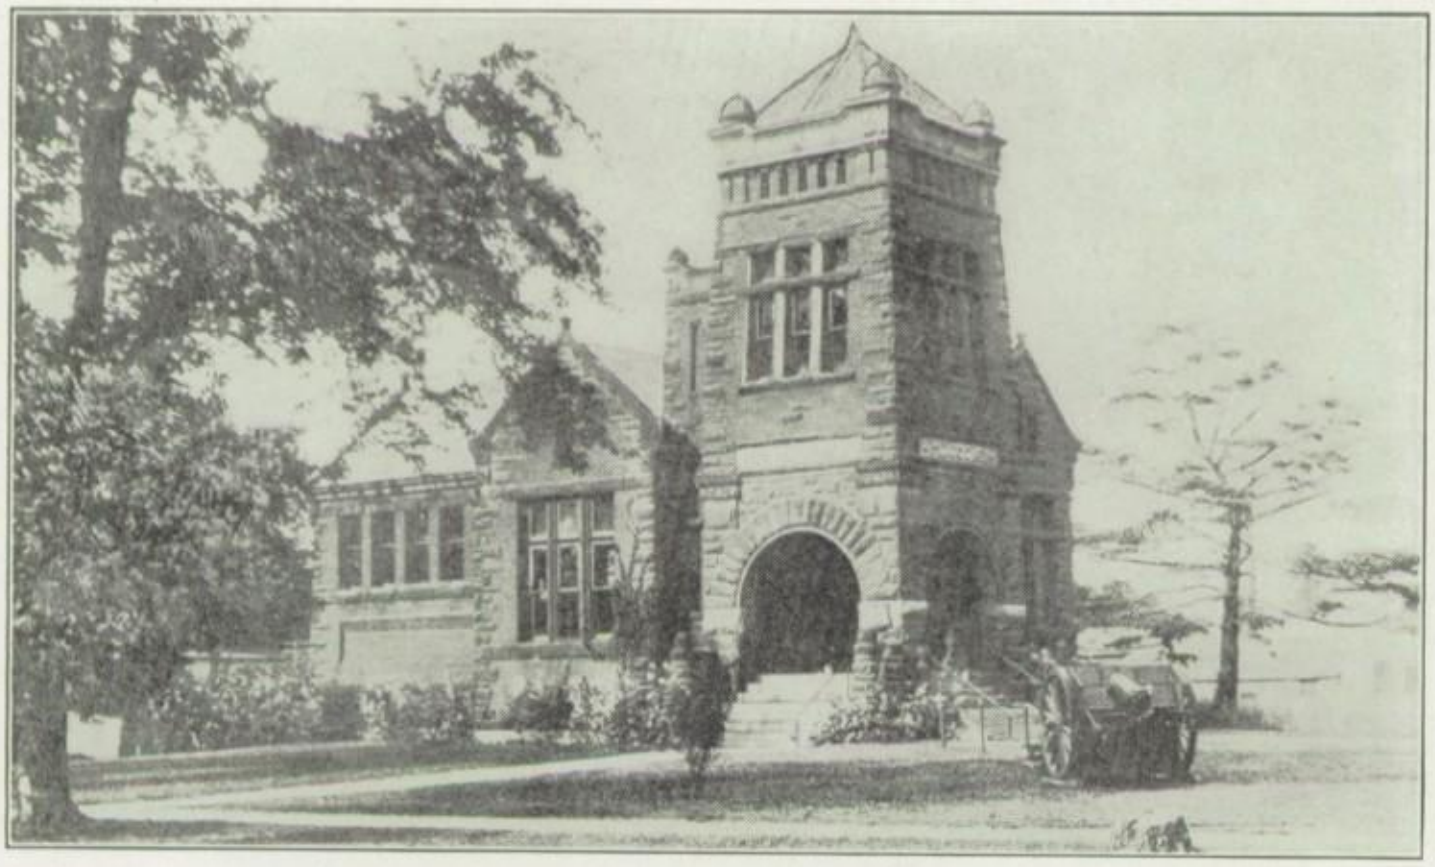
18—The Seniors were honored at the Annual Banquet given by the Sophomores and Juniors at the Methodist Church.

20—The second Senior play was given. It was "Holiday Madness" directed by Mr. Robert Barber.

21—The Baccalaureate Service was held in the High School Auditorium. The class sermon was delivered by Rev. S. T. Walker of Fremont, Ohio.

23—The last play, "Mary Ann", was given under the direction of Miss Imogene Forsyth.

26—The climax of the Class of '33 was reached at the Commencement Program. The speaker for the evening was Dr. Clayton Kohl of Bowling Green, Ohio.



To those who have added the pep, the snap, and the joyous memories to the past High School years,
We voluminously dedicate this section

BILL NYE'S COW AD

Bill Nye, the humorist, once had a cow to sell, and advertised her as follows:

"Owing to my ill health, I will sell at my residence, in township 19, range 18, according to the Government survey, one plush raspberry cow, aged eight years. She is of undoubted courage, and gives milk frequently. To a man who does not fear death in any form, she would be a great boon. She is very much attached to her present home with a stay chain, but will be sold to any one who will treat her right. She is one-fourth short-horn and three-fourths hyena. I will also throw in a double-barrel shotgun, which goes with her. In May she usually goes away for a week or two and returns with a tall, red calf with wabbly legs. Her name is Rose. I would prefer to sell her to a non-resident."
